1. Introduction

These Terms and Conditions apply to the online webinar "Building and launching an LLM-Driven AI Assistant" (hereinafter referred to as "the Webinar") offered by Rinat Abdullin (hereinafter referred to as "The Author"), a sole proprietorship registered in Austria.

2. Workshop Description

The Workshop is designed as a live, collaborative session for programmers, product managers and salespeople working with AI-driven products. The Webinar will be conducted live via Zoom and Miro platforms. Participants will learn about the main principles of building and launching an LLM-driven AI assistant, on the example of a single end-to-end case. Additionally, quality control, feedback collection and organizing customer interaction main principles will be covered. Please note that there will be no recording of these live sessions, as the key part is live participance.

3. Enrollment and Access
Enrollment in the Webinar is open to individuals without prerequisites for programming knowledge.
Upon successful enrollment and payment, participants will receive access details to the live workshop sessions.

4. Fees and Payment

The fee for the Webinar is EUR80.
Payment is required to gain access to the Webinar and must be made in accordance with the payment instructions provided on the payment link.

5. Cancellation and Refund Policy
Participants have the right to cancel their enrollment and receive a full refund within 14 days of payment, provided that they have not accessed the Webinar materials or participated in a live session.
After the 14-day cancellation period, or once a participant has joined a live session, no refunds will be issued.

6. Intellectual Property
All Webinar materials, including any content shared during the live sessions, are the intellectual property of the Author and are protected under Austrian copyright law.

Participants are granted a license to use the materials for personal and professional development. Any distribution, reproduction, or commercial use is strictly prohibited.

7. Liability and Disclaimer
The Author is not responsible for any direct or indirect damages resulting from participation in the Webinar.
The Webinar is provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, either express or implied.

8. Data Protection
Personal data collected during enrollment will be processed in accordance with our Datenschutzerklärung (Privacy Policy) and GDPR, available at abdullin.com

9. Changes to Terms and Conditions
The Author reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. The relevant version always accompanies the respective product.
